How to Use This Study

This unit study contains a list of resources and activities for you to use in your studies. Choose those that will best suit your students, time, and learning environment. My hope is that you will enjoy the process of learning and not feel constricted by the timeline or activities. Make changes as they suit your needs and enjoy your time learning together!

Activities

- Read the read-aloud book together
- Students read the reader alone. One book or all of them from this omnibus.
- Have open discussions about the books as they are read.
- Make a stone age diorama with recycled materials, Legos, or on Minecraft.
- Play Stone Age
- Go on a virtual tour to see the prehistoric art of Lascaux cave in France (link in the resources section).
- Recreate some stone age art with chalk on paper, large rocks, or sidewalks.
- Watch The Manot Skull documentary on Curiosity Stream
- Watch Modern Stone Age Family on Curiosity stream
- If possible try one of the ancient food preparation techniques
- Watch The Neanderthals' Dark Secret on Curiosity Stream
- Do a picture book project. Students write a short story about what it would be like to live in the stone age. They illustrate it and turn it into a picture book.
- Students read their book to a younger sibling, cousin, or even the family pet.
